

GUEST SPEAKER

Mitch Henry

President of Faulkner University

September 9-10

Saturday, September 9

6:30 - 8:30pm

Join us for a presentation on Christian education and learn more about Faulkner University. There will also be a meet-and-greet. We encourage the youth and their parents to join us in this special presentation.

Contact Jim Holway to RSVP or for questions.

Cell: 786-314-6365

Email: jimholway@gmail.com

Sunday, September 10

9:45am & 11:00am

Everyone is welcomed to join Sunset for our Sunday morning Bible classes and worship assemblies. Mitch will teach our Youth class (Middle and High School ages) at 9:45am in the Youth Room, and preach in both English and Spanish worship assemblies, which begin at 11 am in the Auditorium (English) and Fellowship Hall (Spanish).

About Mitch Henry

With 29 years of practicing law, Mitch Henry taught law to undergraduate and graduate students at Faulkner University and at Faulkner's Thomas Goode Jones School of Law.

He was a former Elder of Vaughn Park Church of Christ, where he continues to teach the Bible and serve. He has recently published his first Bible study book, Cross Connections, whose net proceeds go to AGAPE of Central Alabama to support foster care and adoption for vulnerable children.

